AN EPIC DAY OF ADVENTURE

If there's a better way to celebrate a birthday for kids—and even adults who refuse to grow up—we haven't found it yet.

There are three reasons why a day in the trees makes for the most adventurous, exciting, memorable birthday:

1

The environment is unique, different, fun. It gets everyone working together, helping each other, laughing together.

2

The rush everyone feels as they zip and climb is something they'll remember every time they think back to that awesome day.

3

Everyone—from beginners to seasoned adventurers—feels pride after conquering one of our 13 trails of varying levels of difficulty. Not to mention you (as the organizer of this birthday) get bragging rights for having planned an epic party!

“Took teens/tweens for birthday celebration. Everyone loved the challenge of the courses and rush of the zips! The staff were kind, helpful, supportive. The twilight lights were beautiful. We'll definitely try it again.”

—Susanne Coleman
