The Adventure Park at Sandy Spring wins Best Amusement Park Award for Second Consecutive Year

Washington Parent readers name The Adventure Park winner in 3 “Parents Picks” categories

Sandy Spring, MD: After nearly 25,000 votes, Washington Parent Magazine announced its readers voted The Adventure Park at Sandy Spring Friends School the best Amusement Park and Climbing Destination in the greater Washington area in their Parents Picks competition for the second consecutive year. The Adventure Park also won the best “Date Night Venue” for the first time and placed as a finalist in the “Party Venue” competition.

“I am thrilled to hear that the Adventure Park at Sandy Spring has won the “Best Amusement Park” and “Best Climbing Destination” in the DMV area for the second year in a row. It’s a wonderful facility for outdoor recreation, family fun, parties and gathering for guests of all ages. My own family loves it there, our Scouts Troops just finished a troop outing there this past weekend - always a hit with the Scouts, and it gives me great pride in my district to have this gem right in our own backyard.

*In addition to the Adventure Park being a convenient spot for the locals, it brings people to the greater Olney-Sandy Spring area from all over, and that’s a win for our entire small business community. Thank you, Adventure Park at Sandy Spring for your commitment to outstanding entertainment and recreation, and for also being a good partner to our local small business economy.” - Councilmember Luedtke, Montgomery County Council.
